

FLOYD BYRD WILL BE ELECTED BY OVER 2,000

Courier-Journal Predicts a Landslide to Democratic Candidate—Clark's Majority Placed as 1,000—Report in Full.

The Courier-Journal has had a complete report made by one of its Special Correspondents, of the political situation in the Tenth District, and in today's paper it confidently predicts the election of Floyd Byrd by over 2,000 majority. It has had a careful study made of the situation in each county and from this unbiased and nonpartisan report the election of Mr. Byrd is confidently predicted. The report in full is as follows:

Breathitt county—This county in the last election gave Langley a majority of 180, but it is practically conceded by the Republicans that Mr. Byrd will carry the county by from 100 to 150 majority; while the Democrats claim it anywhere from 400 to 600. The Democratic organization in this county is in fine shape and there seems to be a Democratic feeling of success throughout the entire county. This county will undoubtedly give a majority for Mr. Byrd anywhere from 300 to 400.

It is currently reported in Breathitt that Langley has promised the Jackson post-office to Blair McLin but will not have this appointment confirmed until after the election. In this way he hopes to retain the vote and influence of D. D. Hurst and his family. Hurst claims that Mr. Langley will re-appoint him post-master but he is about the only one in the county who believes it.

Clark county—The disaffection of the Republicans in this county is quite marked. Langley appointed Mr. John G. White post-master, and many Republicans say that he could not have made a more unpopular appointment if he had tried. This appointment has split the Republican party wide open, and many of the most influential and best working Republicans have openly announced for Byrd, and are working for him night and day.

Last week a negro independent Republican Club was organized and unanimously endorsed Byrd. This county gave a Democratic majority of about 600 in the last congressional race, but it will give this year anywhere from 1000 to 1200. The Democrats are organized and encouraged while the Republicans, without leaders or workers, are correspondingly depressed and disorganized.

Elliott county—There is no special amount of enthusiasm displayed by either party in this county, though the leaders of the Democratic force say they will return the usual Democratic majority of from 500 to 600, and the Republicans do not seem to dispute this; therefore it is practically conceded by both parties that Elliott will give a Democratic majority of about 500.

Floyd county—The battle for votes has been waged in this and the other counties of the Sandy Valley with more vim, energy and enthusiasm than in any election since the days of Press Taulbee. This county, the home of Langley, gave him in 1908 a majority of 182, but the Democrats claim that they will wipe that majority out and carry it for Byrd by at least four hundred. The mass of the Republican voters, outside of the immediate workers, claim that Byrd will not be able to carry it by over 200. Some of the Republican workers claim that it will be a set-off, while others claim that Langley will carry it by from 100 to 150.

When Mr. Byrd spoke in this county he was met at the depot with a brass band, and by a crowd, variously estimated at from 1000 to 1200 people. He spoke to the largest crowd that has ever assembled at Prestonsburg to hear a political speech, and at the close was taken off of the stand and carried around the square on the shoulders of his enthusiastic followers. The enthusiasm is all in favor of Byrd in this county, and it will undoubtedly give a majority for him anywhere from 250 to 400. Hon. Frank Hopkins, who lives here and who represented this district in Congress for two terms, is one of the most enthusiastic of Byrd's workers in the Tenth District.

Estill county—In 1908 Estill gave Langley a majority of 519 but this will be greatly reduced in the coming election. Langley got a bad start in this county in the campaign. He had made an extensive advertisement for speaking, and the "standpat" Republicans had poured into Irvine from every precinct to hear their champion expound the doctrine of Cannonism and High Protectionism. It happened that Mr. Byrd was in Irvine on that day, so when Mr. Langley arrived and discovered that Byrd was in town he immediately called off his speaking and declined to speak. The Democrats, of course, seized upon this opportunity and taunted the Republicans by telling them that Langley was afraid to speak while Byrd was in town. The Republicans were thoroughly disgusted, and Langley lost many votes by his lay-down. In addition to this many of the influential Republicans are for Mr. Byrd on personal grounds, he having been the attorney for many of them and besides is very popular throughout the entire county.

The Democrats have a fine organization, and the county will not give over 250 majority for Langley.

Johnson county—This is one of the Gibraltar Republican counties of the district, and in 1908 gave Langley a majority of 1,330. The Democrats are well organized and hard at work, and claim they will reduce this majority to 800 or 900. W. T. Stafford, one of the most influential Republicans of the county, and a noted Republican orator, has spoken in every county in this district for Byrd, and this work winds up his campaign in Pike county.

Paintsville, the county seat, is the home of John C. C. Mayo, who is enthusiastically supporting Mr. Byrd and it is the general opinion of the people of the county, outside of the partisan workers, that Langley has lost heavily in this county and will not be able to carry it by exceeding 1,000 votes.

Knott county—This is one of the old reliable Democratic counties. In 1908 it gave Davis a majority of 470 and it can be counted upon to give Mr. Byrd a majority of anywhere from 500 to 600. The Republicans practically concede a majority of 500 for Byrd in this county.

Lee county—This is a Republican county which gave Langley in 1908 a majority of 396, but the insurgent Republicans have gotten in their work in this county to such an extent that there is practically no Republican organization, no enthusiasm, but much disaffection.

Last week Langley, Governor Corbin and Jackson Morris were advertised to speak in Beattyville on court day. The notices were sent all over the county for at least ten days before the day of the speaking, and when they arrived here there were, by actual count, 75 persons in the court house to hear the speakers. The Democrats are hard at work and aggressive, and it would not be at all surprising to hear that Lee county had gone Democratic—though the Democratic workers concede it to Langley by 150 majority.

Magoffin county—This is another Republican stronghold, and in 1908 gave Langley a majority of 785. But in this county Byrd is very popular, and will greatly reduce this vote. He was Commonwealth's Attorney in this county for many years; has many relatives here, and his law partner, Mr. Calloway Howard, who is a staunch Republican, is related to nearly every other person in the county to whom Mr. Byrd is not akin. Mr. Howard is one of the strongest workers that Mr. Byrd has, and has great influence among the Republicans. The Republican disaffection is very marked in this county, and Langley is correspondingly unpopular. It is confidently predicted by the Democrats that Langley will not carry the county by over 200 to 250, while the Republicans are fighting for 500. The Republicans admit that there will be at tremendous falling off in their vote in this county.

Martin county—There are only about 1300 voters in this county, and in Peter Cave precinct in 1908 there was not a single Democratic vote cast. In that election Langley received 1065 votes and Davis 211, making a majority for Langley of 854; but that majority will be cut down next Tuesday. The Republicans have no special organization but seem contented to rely upon the fact that the county is safely Republican. The Democrats have been

KICKED FROM FIRE ESCAPE

One Woman is Killed and Several Persons Are Injured By Fires in Sections of New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—One woman was killed, several persons were injured, and there were numbers of narrow escapes in fires in various sections of this city Friday. Mrs. Rebecca Aener was the woman killed. She is declared by witnesses to have been kicked from the third floor of a fire escape while she was fleeing with her husband and children from a fire set by an incendiary in the Clinton-street tenement in which they lived. The woman's assailant escaped unidentified.

The damages are estimated at one hundred thousand dollars.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

Matter of Salaries of Mayor J. A. Hughes and Judge F. P. Pendleton is Discussed.

At the meeting of the City Council Friday night the matter of the salary of Mayor J. A. Hughes and Judge F. P. Pendleton which caused quite a bit of comment when the present council took their seats last January was up for discussion again. From the tone of the discussion it is probable that at the next meeting of the body the two gentlemen will receive an increase, if not the entire amount of their contention. Mr. Jones made a motion that each be allowed the amount of salary fixed by the old council but no second was made and no vote taken. Mr. C. G. Bush, however, stated that he was in favor of doing the right thing in the matter and asked that the matter be postponed until the next meeting.

A great deal of time was devoted to paying the accounts Friday night and very little business of importance was transacted.

All councilmen were present with the exception of Dr. M. S. Browne.

Judge F. P. Pendleton and Chief of Police Woodson McCord reported 59 cases tried during the month of October; fines amounting to $210 imposed; costs rendered $259.30; old bonds $17.50. Mr. J. M. Hodgkin, treasurer reported a balance of $4,533.11 in the treasury. City Clerk S. B. Tracy reported $58.52 collected for license and had paid out for street hands $379.37. Mr. James McCord, collector, reported $37,545.95 collected in taxes which he had placed in the proper funds and filed receipts from the treasury for same. A balance of $3,900 was reported in the school sinking fund and $4,535.48 in the sewerage sinking fund. Mr. S. H. Rutledge, city engineer, reported that the past month has been devoted almost entirely to sewerage construction work. He also reported two building permits during October. He reported that the construction of the sewerage system had gone as far as C street between Broadway and Lexington avenue; that the amount of work done by the E. T. Lewis Company amounted to $1,599.66.

Mr. J. T. Stokely reported that he had taken up the notes at the People's State Bank amounting to $11,600.80 and presented them, to be destroyed in the presence of the council.

Lights were ordered placed on Alabama street and one at the corner of Main and French avenue.

It was ordered that two bonds of one thousand each be allowed E. T. Lewis Company with interest from April 1st for the work done on the sewerage system as reported by consulting engineer. It was ordered that the city engineer act with the sewerage committee in employing his help.

The City Treasurer was directed to present bonds Nos. 3, 4 and 5 of $1,000 each and to demand payment in cash for same with interest at 4 1/2 per cent. from April 1st and to place the amount to the credit of the sewerage construction fund.

The E. T. Lewis Company proposed to surrender sewerage bonds 3, 4 and 5 with interest at 4 1/2 per cent. amounting to $3,079.87. This proposition was accepted and the treasurer was ordered to pay for same out of the sinking fund and the clerk was directed to keep same and destroy them in the presence of the council at its next meeting. When the city loans its sinking fund out it gets 2 per cent and this will save the city 2 1/2 per cent. Crossings were ordered placed as follows: One across Broadway from Kerr's mill to the post-office; another on Broadway from Massie's shoe store to Grubbs & Benton and one on Fairfax from residence of Mr. J. M. Woods to the old Baptist church.

The Clark County Board of Control were ordered to appear instanter before the Board of Council to show cause if they can, why they should not be assessed with $250,000 worth of tobacco which was in Clark county subject to taxation on April 1st, 1910.

Which property was entitled by Assessor and Board of Supervisors. Mr. D. L. Pendleton appeared for the board and discussed the matter. Mr. Jones moved that it be charged with two million pounds of tobacco valued at 7 cents, a total of $1,750, subject for taxation that year. The motion was carried unanimously and Mr. F. H. Haggard was directed to collect this amount.

Mr. J. Smith Hays was allowed $650 commission for causing the sale of the sewerage bonds to be made to the E. T. Lewis Company.

Mr. S. H. Rutledge was allowed $416.66 back pay and $150 for October.

Another ordinance was passed with reference to the presenting of bills to the city.

The street and alley committee was directed to see to opening an alley on Hill street also one back of the opera house running from Fairfax to Hickman.

It was ordered that John Boone be refunded $3 for poll taxes paid by him.

SEN. MCCREARY IS INTERVIEWED

And Gives Out Answer to the Scurrilous Circular That Has Been Sent Over the State.

In an interview published in the Lexington Herald, Senator James B. McCreary answers the scurrilous circular affecting him that has been sent broadcast over the State. The following are the main points of the interview:

"I have never heretofore given any attention to unsigned circulars. The failure of the author to sign his name shows fraud and falsehood. The circular scattered broadcast over the State in the last few days, and just before an important Congressional election headed 'Parisian,' published at Paris, Tenn., and mailed at Newport, Ky., has a column with the caption 'Resurrected by Governor McCreary,' and it presents so many falsehoods and is so scurrilous that it requires some notice.

"The circular says 'Beekham and Italy will be resurrected by ex-Governor McCreary, with the aid of Mr. John C. C. Mayo. The Beekham Italy and Mayo combination want McCreary to run in the race for Governor so that if he gets elected they can take the affairs of the State in hand and control all of the offices and organizations. They expect to help accomplish this by electing Rufus Vansan Lieutenant Governor.'

"I have not seen or communicated with Governor Beekham in a number of months. When I delivered by invitation an address at Frankfort, Ky., last February at the unveiling and dedication of the Goebel monument, I met Governor Beekham for a few moments in the opera house. He has never announced, according to my information, who he will support for Governor, and I have no means of knowing his position on any question relating to the race for Governor. I may say the same with regard to Percy Haly. I have seen him only a few times in months and he has not told me who he will support for any State office. I have heard Rufus Vansan say he would not be a candidate for Governor or for any other office.

"In this connection I wish to say I want and I will seek the support of all Democrats. No candidate for a State office can be elected unless he has the cordial support of practically all the Democrats in Kentucky. The Democratic majority in Kentucky is small and we lost the State at the last election of State officers by about 18,000 votes.

"I wish to say also that I have made no alliance with any candidate or with any individual in connection with my race for Governor."

AGED CITIZEN IS INSTANTLY KILLED

Buggy in Which Mr. J. N. Havelben of Danville, Was Riding, Struck by Delivery Wagon.

DANVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—Mr. J. N. Havelben, 65 years of age, was instantly killed at 7 o'clock Thursday evening when the buggy in which he was driving was overturned by a delivery wagon driven by two boys.

Mr. Havelben, who was driving from the city to his farm about two miles from town was thrown from his vehicle from the impact caused by the collision of the buggy and the wagon. He is survived by his wife three daughters and one son.

AUTOISTS STAND WITH BARED HEADS

While Funeral Services Were Held Over Remains of Al Livingston, Who Was Killed in Practice.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 5.—A drama new to American automobile racing was enacted on the Atlanta Speedway just before the start of the 100-mile race Thursday.

With the strains of "Nearer, My God to Thee" floating from the grand stand band nine big racing cars lined up at the starting wire, their engines stilled for fifteen minutes, while their drivers with bared heads waited for the last prayer to be said in another part of the city at the funeral of Al Livingston, who was to have started in the 100-mile race, but who was killed in practice here two days ago. After the hymn there was a long silence, respected by all the thousands in the inclosure. The drivers stared hard with tear-dimmed eyes at the painted hoods of their machines. Suddenly the band started a two-step, the racing engines coughed and Livingston, the "King of the dirt track," had passed forever from speedway events. New speed kings were throwing the clutches into position and the big race was on.

Joe Dawson and Bob Bhrum were the stars of racing Thursday, the former by his breaking the local track's record from 1 to 98 miles and the latter by his sensational work in the ten-mile free-for-all.

LECTURES AT K. W. COLLEGE

Opie Read Holds Audience Entranced With His Impersonation of "Old Lim Jucklin."

Opie Read, famous lecturer, philosopher and author, delivered a lecture at Kentucky Wesleyan College Friday night on the subject: "Old Lim Jucklin."

The distinguished gentleman was given a hearty welcome. The entertainment was delightful all the way through, and the audience was enthusiastic.

Being a Southerner himself, the Southern dialect comes to Mr. Read freely and naturally and almost unconsciously, and his interpretation of the negro dialect is especially true and rich. He is equally at home in representing the Kentucky colonel. Mr. Read is a man whose proportions are very large and he towers above the man of ordinary stature like a giant. His personal appearance is such that he could not but attract attention anywhere. His hair is long and black and somewhat bushy. He is brimful of humor at all times, and his stock of witty remarks and bright stories is never near the point of exhaustion.

His impersonation of "Old Lim Jucklin," a village wit and philosopher, is one of the finest works of the kind ever presented.

Opie Read has a reputation that is world wide and his works, which have been before the people for many years, are read wherever clean humor is appreciated.

CELEBRATED TENOR WILL POSITIVELY APPEAR

Since the announcement has been made that the Sheehan English Grand Opera Company will give a performance of Verdi's "Il Trovatore" at the Winchester opera house, Thursday evening, November 10th, numerous inquiries have been made as to whether or not Joseph F. Sheehan, America's greatest tenor, will sing at the performance here and the management take this means of stating that Mr. Sheehan himself will positively sing and furthermore will guarantee to refund money should the famous star not appear.

Inasmuch as Mr. Sheehan's contracts call for his appearance in Chicago and Boston practically exclusively for the next two years this will no doubt be the last opportunity we will have of hearing his golden voice for some time.

In spite of the fact of the great tenor singing himself as well as his entire all star cast including Miss Elaine De Sellom, the wonderful French contralto, Miss Grace Nelson the American singer whose remarkable voice has caused a sensation throughout this country and abroad, Louis La Valle, the famous English baritone from the Royal Opera Company, London, England, and the entire balance of principals as well as the excellent chorus, popular prices will prevail in order to give all an opportunity of hearing what is no doubt the greatest performance of "Il Trovatore" ever given in the English language.

DECIDES FOR CONTESTANTS

Lisle Will Case Which Has Attracted Wide Attention Over the County, Comes to Close.

The Claiborne Lisle will case which has consumed the entire week came to a close Saturday morning when the jury after being out only a short while came in and returned a verdict finding for the contestants.

The case, which started Monday, has attracted the attention of the whole county and each day the courthouse was filled with interested spectators. The interest was due to the popularity of Mrs. Lisle, who during his life was a prominent farmer and a business man of unusual ability. Both sides in the litigation were prominent and had a large number of friends who were interested in the outcome of the case.

The hearing of testimony was begun Monday morning. Judge J. M. Benton the regular judge, declined to act and Judge Walker, of Danville, was appointed by Governor Wilson. Both sides were well represented. Attorneys Pendleton, Bush and Bush and Col. John R. Allen for the contestants, and Attorneys J. M. Stevenson, J. F. Winn, Robert H. Haggard and F. H. Haggard for the proponents. The taking of testimony in the case was finished Friday morning and Mr. D. L. Pendleton addressed the jury for the contestants, followed by Hon. John M. Stevenson for the proponents. Col. Allen followed Mr. Stevenson and Saturday morning Mr. Harding closed for the proponents. The case was given into the hands of the jury about 11 o'clock and they returned their verdict after about an hour's deliberation. Following was the verdict:

"We, the jury, find that the papers dated December 20th, 1909, referred to in the evidence are not the last will of Claiborne Lisle." The verdict was signed by ten jurors, as follows: R. G. Wallis, J. C. Gathis, P. L. Skinner, D. H. Haggard, Joe Berryman, W. E. Heflin, E. T. Curry, W. S. Keene, P. H. Adams and J. L. Thornton. Two did not sign. They were Messrs. Charles Hadley and R. E. Fox.

The two musical Graces, the feature act on the bill at the Auditorium theatre Friday night, displayed rare ability on the violin and the cello. These young ladies have a splendid musical act, having received their musical training in Europe and presenting an act rarely seen on a vaudeville circuit. James O'Neill, a novelty equilibrist and acrobat, also has a nice act. His act is different from the usual run of acrobatic acts and was highly enjoyed by a large audience Friday night. This same bill with two new pictures will give two performances Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock and 8:45.

BROWN'S EXPENSE ACCOUNT

State Auditor James refused to allow an expense account of $413.95, turned in by Prison Commissioner Eli Brown. In this account are expenses incurred by Mr. Brown while a delegate to the International Prison Congress under appointment of Governor Wilson.Included in the bill is $81 for meals in New York and other cities where the prison congress delegates visited, as well as a charge of $21.20 for baggage, porter's fees, etc., as well as $27.80 for cabs and taxicabs in New York, Louisville, Washington, Buffalo, and other places.The law providing for the expenses of prison commissioners declares that the necessary traveling expenses of the commissioners shall be paid, but Auditor James holds that trip to the prison congress was not a part of the necessary expenses, and that the appointment stated specifically that it did not carry with it any payment on the part of the State.The expense account of Commissioner Brown was approved by Commissioner McCutcheon.The present Prison Commission is doubtless the worst that ever disgraced this or any other State. This attempt to collect money from the State is on a par with other things done by the Commission.It has inaugurated a system of assessments on the employees of the prisons that is but little short of highway robbery. Even the women employees are not exempt from their grift.

well organized and are making a quiet still fight. Mr. Byrd has spoken throughout the county and has made a most favorable impression and many votes. The Republicans claim their normal majority, but this is based more upon the fact that the county usually goes Republican than for any other reason, but they have failed to take into account the fine impression which Mr. Byrd has made in every precinct, which with the general Republican apathy and disaffection will reduce the majority. This county will not give over 600 Republican majority, if that much.Menifee county—Menifee is another Democratic county that can be counted upon to always give its normal majority. In 1908 it gave Davis a majority of 349, but will give from 400 to 450 this year for Byrd.Morgan county—Morgan is normally Democratic from 600 to 800, and can always be depended upon for that amount. In 1908, Mr. Davis, the Democratic nominee who lives in that county, received a majority of 639. This year the Democrats are active and well organized. The chairman of the County Campaign Committee is Hon. Jo M. Kendall, formerly Congressman from this district. Mr.
Kendall is enthusiastically for Mr.
Byrd, and is working night and day.
He predicts a majority of at least 800.The Republicans have made a hard fight in this county, and while they claim publicly that the vote will be greatly reduced, yet privately they admit that Byrd will carry it by from 500 to 600. It is safe to say that this county will be carried by Mr.
Byrd by at least 700 majority.Montgomery county—This county in 1908 gave Davis a majority of 168.
The Republican District Campaign headquarters are in Mt. Sterling, and their workers are bending every effort to make this county a set-off this year. The most sanguine do not expect any better result than a set-off while the Democrats confidently claim and assert that Byrd will carry it by 300 majority.Pike county—Here the battle has raged the hottest. In 1908 Langley carried the county by 1380, but in no county in the district has there been such an insurgent Republican movement as here, nor have the Democrats a better organization than in this one. The Republicans have sent here their best speakers and most prominent men, and the Democrats have met them at every point and gone them one better. During the past week the Democrats have had Hon. Robert Friend, of Irvine, speaking in each precinct in one portion of the county, and Hon. E. D. Stephenson, of Pikeville, and W. T. Star-ford, the insurgent Republican of Johnson county, speaking in each precinct in the other end of the county. Today, (Saturday), is the grand Democratic rally day at Pikeville, with Senator McCreary as the chief speaker.The Campaign Committee, under the leadership of Mr. F. W. Stowers as chairman, have 167 active, working members throughout the county and every creek, valley and hillside has been thoroughly canvassed. An immense vote will be polled in this county, and bets are now going being that Langley will not carry it by over 500. Some of the most enthusiastic Democrats predict it will be a set-off. The Republicans will not say what will be the result, and appear to be discouraged and downhearted, while the Democrats are exultant and jubilant. It is safe to predict that Pike will not give over 500 Republican majority.Powell county—This county is very close. In 1908 it gave a Democratic majority of 40, but this year the Democrats are much better organized and are enthusiastic, and confident that Byrd will carry it by at least 100. The Republicans do not seriously dispute this claim. It seems to be conceded on all sides that Powell will go Democratic anywhere from 100 to 150.Wolfe county—This was Mr.
Byrd's home up to several years ago when he moved to Winchester. He married in this county has a very

* SOCIETY Beautiful Party.

Misses Katherine and Mary Farney of near Chilesburg, were hostesses for a charming Halloween masquerade given Monday evening, in honor of their visitors, Misses Eleanor Wood, of Paris and Myrtle Keith of Lexington.

The house was lavishly decked in trailing vines, flowers and Halloween suggestions, whose quaint arrangement lent charm and weird autumnal realism to the occasion. The entrance hall was hung entirely in white, making a ghostly witch den, with cats, bats and owls for decorations and large pumpkins grinning from all available nooks. In the back a huge iron pot, supported by rustic sticks and lighted with burning alcohol cast an uncanny glow over the surrounding of the fortune teller tent.

The guests were received by Miss Katherine Farney, gowned as a witch with flowing hair, carrying a broom and a large black house-cat. Miss Cora Farney, as a fairy, conducted them to the dressing room, from which the girls emerged dressed in sheets, pillow cases, and masks. On entering the parlor where the young men were assembled, a jolly time ensued in which the young men were given prizes for the largest number of correct names of the ghosts.

Late in the evening refreshments of hot chocolate, salad wafers, fruits and bon bons were served from a flower laden table in the dining room.

After games, music and fortune telling, the crowd dispersed at a late hour. Those present were: Misses Eleanor Wood, Myrtle Keith, Florence Sweeney, Nancy Carroll, Rozella Gibson, Maude Miller, Fannie and Edith Barker, Helena White, Lucille Moores, Madia and Rena Christian, Lillian Eddleman; Messrs. Joe Simpson, Andrew Johns, Maxwell and Edward Lyle, Will Taylor, All Smith, Bob and Joe Moores, Louis Barker, Harry Redmon, R. P. Smith, Marshall and Shelby Moores, Leonard Rye, Forrest and Tipton Stevens, Leslie Blankenship, Sherman Crim, Ed. Shannon, W. J. Hough, Paul and Chas. White and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farney.

Box Supper.

A box supper was given at the Buckeye school house on Friday night by Miss Fannie Curry, teacher of the Flynn school, and Miss Carrie Lyons, teacher of the Buckeye school.

The boxes were auctioned and a nice sum was realized, which will be donated to the Louisville Orphans' Home.

Bazaar.

The ladies of the Catholic church will have a bazaar in the opera house block on November 9, 10 and 12.

Miss Cora Walden is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hugh Peyton at Horse Cave.

Mrs. H. F. Savery will return this week from St. Louis, where she has been taking a course in manicuring and hair dressing.

Mrs. Robert Harris, who has been quite ill for a long time is gradually improving.

Mrs. Thomas McCray and children are visiting relatives in North Middletown.

Miss Alma Watts has recovered from an attack of tonsillitis.

Mrs. J. C. May, of Dallas, Tex., and daughter, Thelma Louise, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Watts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Mann and children, of Mt. Sterling have moved to this city and taken apartment with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gilkey on the corner of Hickman and Maple street.

Misses Rena, Katie and Eliza Jones are visiting in Bloomingdale.

Mr. Nelson Bush of Colorado, is visiting Mr. J. W. Parrish.

Mrs. Edward Jonett is visiting in Lexington.

Miss Sophia McCabe, of Nicholas county, is visiting Miss Alma Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wainwright are in Philadelphia.

Col. W. J. Lampton was ill in a hospital in New York City and unable to attend the funeral of Dr. Washington Miller.

Mr. Lindsey Johns left Thursday for Chicago, to witness the match game on Saturday between Purdue and Chicago. He will be joined in Lafayette, Ind., by Mr. Frank Belinger who will accompany him to Chicago.

Mrs. Frank Whitaker and Mrs. Stanford, of Cincinnati, who came to attend the funeral of Dr. Washington Miller have returned home.

Mrs. Sue L. Price, who attended the funeral of Dr. Miller, has returned to her home in Frankfort.

Answers Attack of J. Franklin Wallace on Messrs. Desha Breckinridge and Samuel J. Roberts.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 5.—At the meeting of the Anti-Commission Government forces, held at the courthouse Thursday night, J. Franklin Wallace, with his usual recklessness of facts and flamboyant style of oratory, made personal attacks on some of the supporters of the Commission Plan, particularly Desha Breckinridge, editor of the Herald, and Sam-el J. Roberts, editor of the Leader, which provoked a spirited response from ex-Mayor Clarence E. Woods, of Richmond, Ky., who happened to be present as a listener, and who came to the defense of Messrs. Roberts and Breckinridge.

Mr. Wallace declared that Messrs. Breckinridge and Roberts had espoused the side of the Commission Plan for "what they could get out of it" and that neither was "acting in good faith." He charged that the opponents of the Commission Plan could not get a fair hearing in the columns of either the Leader or Herald, without pay, because Messrs. Breckinridge and Roberts favored the Commission Plan, and were too partisan to be decent to the other side.

Mr. Wallace took up the administration of Mr. Roberts as Collector of Internal Revenue and gave it as his judicial opinion that "while Roberts was Collector he did not earn fifteen cents of the salary paid him by the government."

These are fair samples of Mr. Wallace's "eloquent arguments" against the Commission Plan, which evidently carried great weight, as they were heartily applauded.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is no "cure-all" humbug, but is made for just one purpose—to cure the weaknesses, painful disorders and irregularities of the womanly organism. It is

THE ONE REMEDY for these ailments, sold by druggists, devised and gotten up by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in treating woman's peculiar diseases and is carefully adapted to work in harmony with her delicate organization, by an experienced and skilled specialist in her maladies.

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, which contains neither alcohol (which to most women is the rankest poison) or other injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY for women, the composition of which is so perfect and good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient, in plain English on its outside bottle-wrapper, and attest the correctness of the same under oath—thus taking its users into their full confidence, and warranting physicians in prescribing it in their worst cases, which they do very largely.

It is foolish as well as dangerous to take medicine the composition of which you know nothing. Therefore, don't let a dishonest druggist prevail on you to accept a secret nostrum for this professionally approved medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION. Every ingredient in its make-up has the strongest indorsement of the leading medical men of all the several schools of practice. Send postal card request for free Booklet of same.

Every woman may write fully and confidentially to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and may be sure that her case will receive careful, conscientious, confidential consideration, and that the best medical advice in the world will be given to her, absolutely free.

In addition to this free advice, Dr. Pierce will send a fine French cloth-bound copy of his great 1000-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," to any woman who will send 31 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They work in harmony with "Favorite Prescription" when needed as a gentle laxative. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

Pour a few drops from the bottle into the inhaler that comes with each outfit, and breathe it in four or five times a day.

Immediately you will know that HYOMEI soothes and heals the inflamed and irritated membrane.

But HYOMEI does more than soothe and heal; it kills the germs, those persevering pests that are at the root of all catarrhal conditions. "Last year, I suffered terribly with catarrh. I used one bottle of HYOMEI and my catarrh was better."—Miss Helen McNair, Loyalton, Cal.

A complete HYOMEI outfit, including a bottle of HYOMEI, a hard rubber pocket inhaler and simple instructions for use, costs only $1.00. If you now own a Hyomei inhaler, you can get an extra bottle of HYOMEI for only 50 cents at Phillips and druggists everywhere.

Guaranteed to cure catarrh, croup, asthma and sore throat, or money back.

AEROPLANE IS TO CARRY MAIL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Official sanction was given Thursday by the government for the transmission of U. S. mails by aeroplane for the first time in history. Permission was granted by Postmaster General Hitchcock for A. A. MacCurdy to carry United States mails in this manner from the out-going trans-Atlantic liner Kaiserin Auguste-Victoria to the New York postoffice next Saturday, when that vessel is fifty miles at sea. The mail pouch will contain letters from passengers for transmission to various parts of the world.

REPORT OF FUNDS.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 5.—The money on hand in the Treasury at the close of business October 31, as given out by Auditor James Thurstey, follows: Balance in sinking fund, $163,817.88; balance in school fund, $710,618.62; deficit in general expense fund $89,299; balance in Treasury, $245,137.44; outstanding warrants $1,771,766.90, increase $94,797.47. Treasurer Farley will begin taking up the interest-bearing warrants the last of this month, or the first of next.

LOOK CAREFULLY

at the illustration we present here; as a work of art it is quite different from the ordinary advertising illustration, as you can easily see. Just because the newspaper, generally speaking, is a passing thing, this paper thrown away to make room for the next one, is no reason why you shouldn't appreciate the full beauty of this work

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

But it's interesting for another reason. It illustrates, as well as you'll ever see it done, how correctly designed and properly tailored clothes look on a man. The only way to get a better idea of it, is to step in here some day and ask to be shown our fine suits and overcoats for fall and winter. When you see the clothes themselves, you'll realize that not even such art as this does full justice to them; they're really better than can be illustrated or described.

The principal figure in our illustration shows the new "Shape-maker" model, designed especially for young men; and you get here a very accurate idea of the smart, stalwart lines of this fine style. We want you young fellows to notice it particularly; the lines of the coat—the way it "drapes"; the curve of the shoulder and the back; the length and flare of the skirts. Note also the "peggy" lines of the trousers. It's chiefly in the trousers that this new model differs from other styles; they're shaped around the waist and over the hips, in such a way that belt or suspenders are not necessary; the trousers stay in place without being held up.

This is a new idea; an exclusive Hart Schaffner & Marx idea; it's a fresh development in the making of men's clothes that's undoubtedly the best thing ever done. We want you to see it here. We have the Shape-maker and the new 'Varsity in all the best fabrics; nobody can make such clothes as Hart Schaffner & Marx make them; and nobody else in this town but this store can sell them to you.

MARKETS

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—WHEAT—

Undoubtedly the late break in wheat yesterday was more than even the bears expected. Part of the decline was due to stop loss selling last few minutes. It is not expected that liquidation such as struck the market yesterday will continue.

Conservative leaders talk as if there was a chance for some recovery in the price this morning. The news which should have been helpful to buyers yesterday was the much smaller receipts in this country and prediction of smaller world's shipments was entirely ignored when it came to the late selling of wheat. These things only tend to modify the bearish conditions in the world's wheat situation and the change is not yet radical enough to encourage bull operation which must wait for a price level which will result in important export sales.

CORN—There are many things in the corn situation to make the trader a little bullish. The small local receipts, the light offerings of both old and new corn by the country, some disappointing yields. Husking is well under way and a good brisk shipping demand. These things may encourage a little firmness or a little rally but in the end the supply of corn is likely to be large enough and the movement heavy enough to foretell lower prices. Until the new corn moves more freely world limit sale to good swells in May price.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson VI.—Fourth Quarter, For Nov. 6, 1910.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xxvi, 17-30. Memory Verses, 26-28—Golden Text, Luke xxii, 19—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This lesson, entitled "The Last Supper," is recorded by Mark and Luke as well as by Matthew, and there is a long portion recorded by John only (chapters xiii to xvii, inclusive). It is easy to read it. How often we have done so, but who can understand it? Only by the Spirit can we in any measure grasp a little of its significance. May each one of us have a special anointing to read, to write, to meditate, to teach, and may the Spirit have full control of us, that Jesus Christ may be glorified. Luke says that He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare us the Passover, that we may eat." Then they asked Him, "Where wilt thou that we prepare?" To which He replied that they were to follow a man whom they would meet in the city bearing a pitcher of water, and by him they would find the furnished upper room. They found as He had said and made ready the Passover. With the "Where wilt thou?" of this lesson I have in mind the "What wilt thou?" of Acts ix, 6, with Prov. iii, 5, 6, and its "Trust—lean not—acknowledge—He shall direct." We cannot learn the way of peace and His guidance in all things until we have learned that we of ourselves know nothing and can do nothing. Then see what simple, ordinary things He uses—a man, a pitcher of water and, away back in the story, a shepherd's rod, a dream many a time, a barley cake, the dew, a vine, a fig tree, a gourd, a worm, a hen and chickens, sparrows, everything? If there seems to be delay in guidance He is saying, "My time is not yet," but in due time He will say, "My time is at hand."

When evening came He sat down with the twelve and spake of His great desire for this time, but that He would never again eat the Passover with them nor drink of the fruit of the vine till the kingdom of God should come (Luke xxii, 15-18), thus pointing to a future fulfillment of the Passover, when the deliverance of Israel from all nations would so far exceed the deliverance from Egypt that the deliverance under Moses would not seem worth mentioning in comparison (Ex. xiii, 7, 8). Then followed, still between verses 20 and 21 of our lesson, the washing of their feet, with its great lesson of humility. Those who think that He taught only literal foot washing should consider His words to Peter, "If I wash thee not thou hast no part with me" (John xiii, 8). He washed the feet of Judas as well as of the others, yet Judas had no part with Him, and He said concerning him, "He had been good for that man if he had not been born" (verse 24). If the wicked are to be annihilated, as some teach, there is no force in this saying of Jesus. Some time during the feast Jesus indicated Judas as His betrayer by dipping a sop and handing it to him. Satan having then entered into Judas, Jesus said to him, "That thou doest do quickly," and he went out immediately, and it was night (John xiii, 26-30). It has been night with him ever since, and there is no morning for him (Isa. xlii, 20, R. V.).

The Passover being ended and Judas having gone out to do his devilish work, our Lord took bread, blessed, broke and gave to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is My body." Then He took the cup and gave thanks and gave it to them, saying, "Drink ye all of it, for this is My blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins." Then He added a word about not drinking it henceforth till the kingdom comes (verses 26-29). Paul in his statement of this says that Jesus added both in reference to the bread and the wine, "This do in remembrance of Me," and he added, "For as often as ye eat this bread and drink this cup ye do show the Lord's death till He come" (I Cor. xi, 22-26). Those who teach that He gave them His actual body and blood to eat and drink should explain how this could be while He sat there among them. Rather let us accept His own explanation in John vi, 47, 54, that eating His flesh and drinking His blood is just believing in Him, for everlasting life is the result in each case, and there are not two ways of obtaining this life. What we eat we receive into us and assimilate it, and it becomes part of our body. As we eat His words, which are spirit and life, we eat Himself, and He dwells in us (John vi, 63; Jer. xv, 16).

We cannot begin to consider in so brief a lesson all the words and events of that evening, but between verses 20 and 30 of our lesson we must think of the whole of John xiv and with verse 31 of that chapter compare verse 30 of our lesson, remembering that John xiv is preceded by Peter's assurance of readiness to die with Jesus. How little we know ourselves! How well He knows us! And yet with all our vain boasting hear His "Let not your heart be troubled," as if He said: "You will find out what I know already, but do not think of yourself or be discouraged."

After verse 30 of our lesson we must think of the whole of John xvi, xvi and xvii. Then in verse 31 hear His quotation from Zech. xiii, 7, and let the sword of that verse point you back to the sword of Gen. iii, 24, which must find a sacrifice, the antitype of Abel's lamb, if man would approach God.

LANGLEY AS SEEN BY THE PRESS.

LANGLEY'S PET MEASURE.

Special to Courier-Journal.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9, 1910.—Representatives Langley of Kentucky, and Rucker, of Missouri, were circulating a petition today on their own respective sides of the House, addressed to the Chairman of the Committee on Invalid Pensions, asking that the committee fix an early day for a hearing on Mr. Langley's bill or some similar measure opposing to pension the State militiamen who aided in the suppression of the rebellion. The petition was numerously signed by both Democratic and Republican members from Kentucky, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Kansas, Missouri and one or two other States.

This is Mr. Langley's pet measure and he expressed himself this afternoon as much gratified and encouraged by the large number of members, regardless of politics, who have agreed to aid in pressing the measure. There have been two or three partial hearings heretofore, and the purpose of Langley and Rucker by this move is to get a full hearing for all of the States interested. There is a delegation from Kansas here now who have come all the way from there to urge the passage of that bill.

Mr. Langley was in conference with Chairman Sulloway this afternoon, and the chairman assured him that at the regular meeting of the committee next Monday a day would be set aside next week for the hearing. Mr. Langley stated after the interview that Mr. Sulloway indicated that he would like to have the friends of the measure reach an agreement so that there will be only one speaker from each State to address the committee, and it is understood that this arrangement is to be made.

In speaking of the matter, Mr. Langley said: "We are in dead earnest about this proposition and there are enough of us back of the measure now to get something done. We will, of course, be unable to get a bill favorably reported which will be as broad as I would like to see it, but I am satisfied that we will get a measure passed upon which all of us can agree that will result in placing upon the pension rolls those militiamen who co-operated with the regular United States forces and rendered the same character of service to the Union cause that was rendered by the regular troops."

Whether Mr. Langley's hopes regarding this militia measure will be realized or not, it must be admitted that he has made a good fight for it.

LANGLEY DEPLORES PREJUDICES

Special dispatch to the Enquirer.

WASHINGTON, March 20, 1910.—After the completion of bills on the unanimous calendar today General Keifer, of Ohio, called up the pension appropriation bill, and the House at once resolved itself into Committee of the Whole and took up the consideration of this measure.

An interesting speech was made by Representative Langley, of Kentucky. He began by deprecating the tendency which has been shown by some men in high places recently to seek to revive what he termed "the prejudices and passions of the old rebellion."

"There are some men," he declared, "who do not seem to realize that the war is over, although the echo of the last shot died away nearly half a century ago."

Turning to his Republican colleagues he said:

"Let us live for the present and the future, and not in the memories of the dead and buried past."

He paid an eloquent tribute to the Southern people, and to the old Confederates, who, he declared, have accepted the results of the war in good faith and are contributing their share toward making the nation happier, better and greater. This sentiment was liberally applauded on both sides of the House.

Langley called attention to the fact that over 100 members of the House had introduced pension bills, all designed to make the present system more liberal, and intimated that a good many of these measures evidently were introduced for home consumption.

He contended that the soldiers could not be blamed for becoming dubious of the motives of members who introduced bills and then let them die in committee without an effort to get them considered.

He obtained unanimous consent to insert in the Record a summary of all pension bills that have been introduced and the names of the authors of such bills, and said that if they were all in earnest when they introduced these bills and would join with them something more would be accomplished for the soldiers at this session of Congress.

TENTH DISTRICT MAN PROMOTED

Upon the request of Hon. John W. Langley, the Commissioner of Pensions, has appointed Dr. Addison E. Helton, of Sandy Hook, Elliott county, to be assistant medical referee of the Pension Bureau at a salary of $2,250 per annum. He has been in the Pension office a number of years on a salary of $1,600.—Mr. Sterling Gazette, Nov. 28, 1907.

IN FOREFRONT OF FIGHT.

Congressman Langley is in the forefront of the fight for the present tariff schedule on lumber and has achieved considerable success so far. Mr. Langley has gained a prestige and influence in the House that few Congressmen have attained from the mountain districts of Kentucky. Congressman Langley and his associate Representative from this section, are in full accord and have stood valiantly together in the fight for the maintenance of the present tariff rates on lumber.—Ashland Commercial Ind., Feb. 20, 1909.

FORAKER ATTACKS

"NEW NATIONALISM"

Gives Words of Praise For Framers of the Constitution and Discusses "the King Business."

DAYTON, O., Nov. 5.—Former Senator Joseph B. Foraker returned to his attack on the "New Nationalism" with his reappearance in the Ohio campaign at the Soldier's Home here Thursday, though he avoided direct mention of Colonel Roosevelt in the former Senator observed also that the "tendency in some quarters to condemn the judiciary and rob it of part of its functions is pernicious, and should receive a quick and decisive rebuke from the voters whenever opportunity arises."

He further declared that while the Democratic party lacks the power to work damage "sometimes we find a Republican who has new ideas and wants to press those ideas until dissatisfaction is created in the Republican party."

With words of high praise for the framers of the constitution Foraker came to the matter of "this King business" so entitled by Job Hedges of New York.

"These men," he said, "did not like the thought of placing power in the hands of one man. They did not want a king. They had come from lands over the sea to escape kings and they settled the question forever by deciding to confer the powers of Government on three departments—the legislative, the executive and the judiciary."

"The farmers of the constitution made every effort to avoid the centralization of power and the voters should be warned against following any doctrine of centralization, no matter by whom expounded."

CUT OUT ROOSEVELT CANCER.

CORTLAND, N. Y., Nov. 5.—"Let us cut out the cancer of Rooseveltism," said former Judge Alton B. Parker in a reply made here Thursday night to what he called the "astounding" address of Senator Elihu Root, delivered last week at Carnegie Hall, New York City.

"That was a most astounding address which Mr. Root delivered. 'Dare not revolt or worse shall befall you; accept your chains or feel the lash; bring or be crushed; assert the right to name your executives and that right shall be definitely taken from you.' That in all fairness is the sense of his speech as it relates to the issue of Rooseveltism."

"Such is the special leader and his client we know better than before, and when we consider the past relations between them, the hollowness and lack of sincerity in the suggestion that Mr. Taft's nomination by Republicans of 1912 is in any wise involved in a rejection of Roosevelt in

ROOSEVELT TO ANSWER DIX

ALLIANCE, O., Nov. 5.—Theodore Roosevelt, enroute to Chicago Thursday gave out a statement on the train in reply to the speech made by John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, in New York last night. Mr. Roosevelt said:

"Mr. Dix becomes exceedingly valorous about me the moment I leave the State. I'll answer him when I get back. I call the attention of all wage workers to the fact that having in effect defended the brake shop decision which forbade New York State to interfere to prevent workmen laboring under unhygienic conditions, he now in effect defends a decision declaring workmen's compensation also unconstitutional."

NO MORE DANDRUFF

PHILLIPS SELLS THE REMEDY THAT IS GUARANTEED TO KILL ALL DANDRUFF.

Of course you and every intelligent reader of the News knows that dandruff is caused by a germ.

Dr. Sagerbund, the great French physician, proved this beyond a doubt.

In order to rid your scalp of filthy dandruff you must kill the germ. There is a hair dressing called Parisian Sage which is now sold in every town in America, that is guaranteed to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair, splitting hair and scalp itch in two weeks, or money back.

If you have dandruff get a large 50 cent bottle today and rid yourself of it.

Remember that if dandruff germs are not destroyed in time, the hair will surely fall out and baldness will follow. Here's proof of what Parisian Sage has done: It will do more. It is the finest hair grower and hair dressing in the world, and people who use it regularly will never grow bald. Mrs. John Stoner, Evansville, Ind., writes on June 2, 1910:

"I used Parisian Sage and found it very successful: it removes dandruff and gives the hair life. I only used two bottles. I know it is a cure for dandruff."

Large bottles 50 cents at Phillips and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every carton.
